PHYSIC, SURGERY, MIDWIFERY, &c.

THE Subscriber takes this method of informing the inhabitants of Alexandria and its neighbourhood, that he has just fixed himself as a resident amongst them, for the purpose of becoming a Practitioner in MEDICINE, SURGERY, in all its Branches, MIDWIFERY and the Diseases of the TEETH; he trusts that six years unremitting attention, in the most approved schools of Europe, to the different divisions of Science which compose his profession, will enable him to discharge its duties in a manner that shall be consistent with the safety and welfare of the Patient, as well as the reputation and dignity of the Profession itself; he hopes also that he will be found to practice on fully as reasonable terms as any reputable Practitioner can afford to do. There is one circumstance to which he could wish to be permitted the liberty of asking attention, it is the Vaccine Innoculation, the greatest discovery, perhaps, that has ever been made in Medicine. Medical Science has justly been complained of, as making slow progress; as travelling in a dull, halting gait; but, relative to Vaccine Innoculation, she has lately made a rapid, a gigantic stride of improvement, one that tends to expunge from the catalogue of Diseases the most odious and calamitous that ever afflicted man, the Small-Pox. This then being the character of the discovery, the Subscriber trusts he may be believed when he asserts, that the full and complete diffusion of its benefits is what most sincerely interests him; even though wholly abstracted from any considerations of pecuniary advantage; he has been informed, that medical characters in this place, of much skill and benevolent intentions, have found impediments to the success of the Vaccine Innoculation, and that such impediments, though they seem somewhat peculiar to this country, have considerably limited the sphere of its usefulness. To investigate and remove the causes of those impediments will be an object of his most unceasing attention, and should there be any persons in this town or its vicinity, who would wish to participate in the benefits of the discovery, but may feel themselves restrained by pecuniary motives, he will innoculate and carry them through the disease free from all expence whatever. He has been familiarly acquainted with it in Europe, and possesses instructions given to him by the author of the discovery himself, whereby it may be most certainly and truely communicated, and as prudently and safely managed; there are circumstances too, of no small importance, as upon the communication of the true Vaccine Disease, and the prudent management of it depends the ample and wide extended blessing, which, under such circumstances, it is fully capable of conferring on the human species; for, if the false disease be communicated instead of the true, though only in a few instances, and the true disease not properly managed, it will involve the merits of the remedy in doubt and uncertainty, and ultimately bring it into total disrepute and uselessness. The Subscriber may be seen, by applying at his Shop, Prince street, nearly opposite Dr. Dick's, or at his lodgings, at Mrs. Griffith's, King street.

Foreign Intelligence.

On Tueſday evening arrived at Phil. the ſhip Amſterdam Packet, capt. Hidelius, in 33 days from Bourdeaux, with Paris papers to the 9th of September, from which the following tranſlations have been made made for the Philadelphia Gazette.

TOUSSAINT LOUVERTURE.

PARIS, Auguſt 25.

Touſſaint Louverture has arrived at Paris; he was brot here in a poſt chaiſe, eſcorted by a numerous detachment of dragoons; he is in the temple.

BORDEAUX, September 5.

We learn by letters from Cayenne, the arrival of a corvette coming from Breſt having on board the wife of Touſſaint Louverture, two of her children, one of her nieces, and ſome ſervants; they went on ſhore the 2d of September, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. Mrs. Touſſaint was received on the wharf by the mayor of Bayonne, the commander of the troops, with a detachment of grenadiers, and conducted to the hotel of Providence. They are now preparing apartments for her in one of the caſtles. A centinel has been placed at the door of the hotel.

September 6.

The Moniteur of the 3d inſtant, contains ſix ſenatus conſulta, the firſt regulates the manner the ſenate ſhall be preſided and convoked, and how the ſenatus conſulta ſhall be preſented. The ſecond relates to the order in which the five ſeries, that form the grand diviſion of the departments of the republic, ſhall preſent deputies to the legiſlative body. It is enacted by the third, that the ſenatus conſultum that will pronounce the diſſolution of the legiſlative body or tribunate, ſhall announce the propoſition of the government, the report of a ſpecial commiſſion on this matter, and ſhall report that the votes have been received ſecretly by ballot. The fourth deſignates the 24 cities, the mayors of which ſhall be preſent at the taking the oath of the citizen appointed to ſucceed the firſt conſul; thoſe cities are Paris, Lyons, Bourdeaux, Marſeilles, Rouen, Nantz, Bruxelles, Mayence, Anvers, Liege, Lille, Toulouſe, Straſburg, Rheims, Nancy, Amiens, Geneva, Dijon, Nice. By the fifth, the iſland of Elba is united to the territory of the republic, and ſhall ſend a deputy to the legiſlative body; which will make the members of this body amount to 301. The ſixth, at laſt, relates to the diviſion of departments of the republic into five ſeries, and to the order in which they ſhall be called to preſent deputies to the legiſlative body. And after proceeding by lot, the reſult of the drawing for the five ſeries was in the following order: the 4th, the 3d, the 5th, the 2d, and the 1ſt.

PARIS, September 3.

The affairs of Germany are on the eve of being terminated. France, Ruſſia, Auſtria, Pruſſia and Bavaria agree together. Pruſſia has taken poſſeſſion of the ſtates granted her by the plan of the two great mediating powers. Auſtria has taken poſſeſſion of Saltzburg, Berenſtolgaden, Brixen and Trent, granted her likewiſe by the ſame plan; her troops were at Paſſau, before this court had adopted the ſaid plan; but the imperial miniſter has declared that he took poſſeſſion of them only to preſerve the rights of the biſhop of Paſſau, till the time when the mediating powers of the deputation of the empire would pronounce.

It is aſſerted that the number of Engliſhmen now in Paris amounts from ten to twelve thouſand, few perſons can doubtleſs, verify the exactneſs of this aſſertion; but certain it is that people of that country abound more and more in the capital. Nevertheleſs, the London newſpapers have not ceaſed repeating theſe three months paſt, that the Engliſh cannot ſtay in Paris more than eight or ten days, becauſe living is too dear there. To know what is to be depended upon, we need only to obſerve that packets that came from Dover to Calais, have uniformly brought over ſince the re-eſtabliſhment of communications, a greater number of paſſengers, than the packets of Calais have to Dover.

Let it be as it will, the plays, walks, and public gardens of the capital, are reſorted to by numbers of Engliſhmen that we may compute to ſeveral thouſands the contingent of foreigners furniſhed us by that nation.

They write us from Brada, that the 27th diviſion of light infantry, in garriſon in that town, went out this morning in the greateſt order, from that place, to meet the colours brought by a detachment of Paris.

The corps re-entered ſoon with the utmoſt order; a noble majeſtic and warelike muſic added to the ſplendor of that ſolemn ceremony; the detchment of Paris was in the centre of the column; the corps was placed in battle array on the public ſquares; there the chief of brigade Deſſaix, the commander of the place, has preſented each batallion with its colours, in making its brave ſoldiers remember the promiſe he had made the firſt conſul in their name, to carry always in the road of courage and honor theſe new marks of victory, and to give them up only with life, if ever impious diſcord ſhould happen to imbrue in blood a world reſtored to peace by the hero of the French nation.

The ſacred promiſe has been repeated from all parts with the enthuſiaſm of gratitude and joy, and from all parts have echoed the cries of long live the republican government, long live Buonaparte.

ACTS OF GOVERNMENT.

Arrete of the 27th of Auguſt.

The conſuls of the republic, after hearing the report of the miniſter of finances, in conformity to the article 4 of the arrete of the 3d Thermidor, granting leave of ſtaple for French colonial commodities and produce, in conformity alſo to the arrette of the council of May 4, 1798, on the ſame decree;

Art. I. Merchants and others who will declare to be in ſtaple the ſame ſpecies of French colonial commodities and produce denominated in the firſt number of the tarif annexed to the arrete of the 3d of Thermidor laſt, and ſubject to the duties of conſummation ſhall be bound to declare before the cuſtom houſes, before their putting the ſaid commodities and ſtaples, the ſtores in which they will put them, and ſhall acknowledge themſelves bound to ſhow the ſame again at any time, with a reaſon for taking them out of one ſtore into another, without a previous declaration and ſpecial permit of the cuſtom houſe, under the penalty of paying immediately the duties in caſe of unauthorized mutation and the double duties in caſe of an entire ſubtraction of the ſame.

2. The miniſter of finances is charged with the execution of the preſent article, which ſhall be inſerted in the bulletin of laws. The Firſt conſul,

(Signed) BONAPARTE.

By the Firſt conſul,

The ſecretary of ſtate,

(Signed) H. B. MARET.

FRANKFORD, Auguſt 27.

We learn from Darmſtadt, that baron Barkhouſen, the firſt miniſter of the landgrave has ſet out for Ratiſbon, to obtain, from the two guaranteeing powers, France and Ruſſia, the authoriſation of receiving the indemnities allotted to this prince. Baron of Edelſheim, firſt miniſter of the margrave of Baden, went to Ratiſbon for the ſame purpoſe. Deputies from Bamberg, Wurtzburg, from the houſe of Naſſau, &c. have arrived there, intruſted with full powers from their conſtituents, to watch over their reſpective concerns with the diet.

MANHEIM, Auguſt 27.

There have arrived here two couriers with very important diſpatches. The firſt is the bearer of an order to all Bavarian troops, now in the Palatinate to cauſe all thoſe that are abſent on furlough, to join their corps again in 24 hours, and be ready to march. By the ſecond, theſe troops have received the ſummons of ſetting off without any delay for Wurtzburg. They are commanded by the prince of Yzenburg. The garriſon of Heidelberg are to ſet off to-day, and that of Manheim the day after to-morrow.

The whole of the elector's troops has begun to march in ſeveral directions. General Gaza will head the body of the army charged with occupying the imperial towns and eccleſiaſtical countries of Suabia, to ſupply the place of general Dixon, who has taken the command of general Battels.

MUNICH, Auguſt 22.

It is aſſerted, that the court of Vienna has applied to the French government and to the courts of Berlin and Peterſburg, to obtain for the grand duke of Tuſcany greater indemnities than thoſe granted him by the convention of Paris. The ſame declaration has been made to all the ſtates of Germany that form a part of the deputation of the empire.

Letters from Berlin announce that negociations have been opened between Pruſſia and the elector of Saxony, concerning the exchange of the town and territory of Erfurt, and the formerly imperial towns of Mulhauſen and Nordhauſen, for a part of Luſace.

Auguſt 13, a few leagues W. of the Cape, ſhip good Friends from the Iſle of France for Philadelyhia; paſsengers, Messrs. Olem and Burling; parted company Aug. 14. Aug. 27, lat. of St. Helena, spoke the Good Friends again.

NEW YORK, October 20.

Captain Marrener, to whom we are indebted for the following proclamation, informs us, that the new laws relative to the duties payable in the island of Martinique, limit the port charges at 21 dollars, and a duty of 2 per cent. on all sales, and 7 per cent on the purchase of colonial produce. A number of American vessels there with beef and pork, were not permitted to land their cargoes when capt. M. sailed. It was not known how long this prohibition would continue; but the government had ordered an enquiry of the quantities of every species of provisions that would be wanted, and, from the scarcity, it was expected that Americans would soon be permitted to dispose of their cargoes.

On his passage to New York, captain M. spoke the schooner Edward Swain of Baltimore, which sailed some time after the Sally, and was informed that St. Pierre's had been proclaimed the only port of entry.

PROCLAMATION

Of Admiral Villaret Joyeuse, captain general of Martinique and St. Lucia.

FRENCHMEN, war and dissentions have separated you from the mother country—peace restores you again to her bosom.

The French government maintains the ancient laws made for the happiness of the colonies, protects the religion of your fathers; guarantees the integrity of property, and preserves slavery; which made a part of ancient colonial possession. After having conquered and given peace to the world, it wishes the happiness and tranquility of the nation, by allaying hatred, and binding up the wounds which parties have made. After having combated armies, it supports altars, and re-establishes christianity.

Wretched shall those be who dare to disturb the social order established in the colonies; who shall cherish suspicions with regard to the intentions of the mother country. The sword of justice will soon be unsheathed to punish, but far be it from our wish to find any one culpable. Our first care shall be to prevent the commission of such crimes, by the most watchful vigilance; and our strongest solicitude shall be to add to the happiness of the colony, by justice and an equitable administration. Your souls long to be united again to Frenchmen, ten years of glory have effaced the misfortunes of the revolution. The 18 Brumaire, and the treaty of Amiens, have fixed the destiny and the grandeur of France. The hero who governs—who makes the happiness of the colonies his, by making commerce to revive and flourish; astonished posterity is yet not decided concerning; but without doubt will make him the greatest of men.

The Captain General,
VILLARET JOYEUSE.

[By an arrette of Bonaparte, dated the 8th Floreal, 10th year, the following names of places in Martinique, St. Lucia and Tobago, are ordered to be changed.

The fort called Royal, at Martinique, shall take the name of Fort de France.

Bourbon, the name of Fort Desaix.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26.

FROM THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

We learn that the French national schr. Enfant Prodique, from Guadaloupe, which she left on the 26th of September, has put into New-York for the purpose of delivering dispatches to the address of Mr. Pichon and that she proceeds immediately to France.

The Colonial Prefect, Mr. Lescallier, had by an arrete, opened the Colony to foreign vessels. The information received by Mr. Pichon states the Colony to be in want of provisions, and especially salt beef and pork.

General Lacrosse had been installed in the government by General Richpanse, but only temporarily, to assert the power of government. He was to give up the government in a short time to General Richpanse, and to proceed to another destination assigned him in the Colonies; but in consequence of the death of General Richpanse, General Lacrosse retains the government.

Permission had been given to people of color to return to Guadaloupe.

Translation of a letter written by rear admiral Lacrosse, captain general of Guadaloupe, to Mr. Pichon.

Basseterre, the 4th Vendemiare, 11th year (26th Sept. 1802.)

I have the honor to inform you, citizen commissary, that by a decision just taken by citizen Lescallier, counsellor of state colonial Prefect at Guadaloupe, all the ports of this colony shall in future be open as formerly, to the American vessels and the exportation of colonial produce permitted on paying duties.

(Signed) LACROSSE.

Translation.

In the name of the French Republic.

R. Lacrosse, Captain General of Guadaloupe and its dependencies.

Being willing to insure and maintain tranquility in the colony of Guadaloupe orders as follows:

1st. No white individual shall be admitted in this colony without a passport.

2d. No person of color or black shall be admitted in Guadaloupe unless they are provided with a passport from the commanding officer of the colony where they reside, and they will not be permitted to land until they are permitted to do so.

3d, No person whatever can leave the colony without a passport from the commissary of Government.

4th. Every Captain arriving in one of the ports of the colony shall declare the number of men composing his crew, their names and colour; the number of passengers, their names and colour. When they depart they shall present all the men composing their crew, as well as such of the passengers, who should not have been permitted to land or remain in the colony.

5, All foreign vessels on board of which negroes or mulattoes should have been introduced without passports, shall be seized and confiscated if the captain does not, when he arives, declare that such passengers are on board.

6. There shall be no intercourse between a vessel arriving and the land until the health officer has made his visit agreeably to the established rules and regulations, and until the declarations has been made by the captain.

(Signed) LACROSSE.

The Executors of the late Gen. Geo. Waſhington, offer for ſale, the following

TRACTS OF LAND, viz.

A tract in Loudoun county on Difficult Run, containing 300 acres. The ſoil well adapted for farming and a conſiderable proportion of it might eaſily de improved into meadow. There is a valuable mill-ſeat on the premiſes. It lies on the great road from the City of Waſhington, Alexandria and George Town to Leeſburgh and Winchester, nineteen miles from Alexandria, leſs from the City and George Town and not more than three from the Great Falls of Potomac.

One tract containing 2,481 acres lying in the counties of Loudoun and Fauquier, called Aſhby's Bent. The ſoil is that which is ſaid to be moſt favorable to Plaſter of Paris, well watered by ſeveral never failing ſtreams iſſuing from the mountain—part of this land is cleared and tenanted for lives.

One tract lying part in each of the above counties, containing 885 acres. Chatten's run paſſes through this tract and gives ſeveral valuable mill ſeats. The ſoil is ſimilar to the above tract and equally favorable to Plaſter of Paris.

A tract on the South Fork of Bullſkin, containing 1600 acres—One alſo, Head of Evans's Mill, containing 453 acres, and one on Wormley's line, containing 183 acres. Theſe ſeveral tracts are in Jefferſon (late Berkeley county)—the ſoil very ſimilar in quality, and particularly adapted to the culture of Tobacco, Hemp, Wheat and Indian Corn, ſituated twelve miles from Harper's Ferry.

One tract containing 571 acres in Frederick county. this land is in the vicinity of the laſt mentioned tracts and equally valuable.

One tract in Hampſhire county containing 240 acres—this tract, tho' ſmall is extremely valuable. It lies on Potomac river, about 12 miles above the town of Bath (or Warm Springs) and is in the ſhape of a horſe-ſhoe, the river running almoſt round it; two hundred acres of it are rich low grounds, with a great abundance of the largeſt Walnut and other trees, which with the produce of the ſoil, might (by means of the improved navigation of the Potomac) be brought to a ſhipping port with more eaſe and at a ſmaller expenſe, than that which is tranſported only 30 miles by land.

One third part of 1119 acres on Nanſemond county near Suffolk, lying on the road from Suffolk to Norfolk and in Nanſemond river—this land is conſidered extremely valuable by thoſe who are acquainted with it.

One tract in Charles county, Maryland, containing 600 acres—it is very level and lies near the river Potomac.

One tract in Montgomery county, Maryland, containing 519 acres—This land lies about 30 miles above the City of Waſhington, not far from Kettoctan and is good farming land.

One tract in Pennſylvania, containing 234 acres—This land affords an exceeding good ſtand on Braddock's road from Fort Cumberland to Pittſburg, and a large quantity of natural meadow fit for the ſcythe. It is diſtinguiſhed by the appellation of the Great Meadows, where the firſt action with the French, in the year 1754, was fought.

One other tract on the Mohawk river, State of New-York, containing 1000 acres.

In North Weſt Territory.

Three tracts lying on Little Miami, containing 3051 acres.

In Kentucky. On Rough Creek, one tract containing 3000 acres; ditto adjoining 2000 acres. Indiſputable titles can be given for the above lands.

Lots in the City of Waſhington.

Two improved lots near the Capitol, ſquare 634. The improvements are, on each an elegant three ſtory brick houſe.

Four other unimproved lots on the Eaſtern Branch, No. 5, 12, 13 and 14, in ſquare 667. Theſe lots are advantageouſly ſituated on the water.

ALEXANDRIA.

A few valuable lots in Alexandria, corner of Pitt and Prince-ſtreets, three or four of which are let on ground rent at 3 dollars per foot.

WINCHESTER.

One lot in Town of half an acre, adjoining Doctor Makay's, encloſed with a good poſt and rail fence, and a not [illegible] the commons of about ſix acres.

Bath, or Warm Springs.

Two well ſituated lots, on one of them is a ſmall building large enough to accommodate one family.

The terms of ſale will be made known by application to either of the ſubſcribers.
